CARRANZA VIEW IS FAVORABLE

Opens Way to Negotiate the Mexican Trouble

PRESIDENT IS PLEASED

Commission to Be Appointed in a Few Days

Washington, July 29.—President Wilson has expressed to the cabinet his gratification over what is regarded as a favorable turn in the negotiations with Mexico.

It was said at the White House yesterday that something definite can be announced with regard to the appointment and duties of the American-Mexican commission within the next day or two. Ambassador Designate Arredondo said yesterday that the outlook for further progress toward a diplomatic settlement in the immediate future was good, but that it would be premature to tell now what has been decided.

The appointment of a commission is certain and the general situation was taken up with the cabinet yesterday, according to Secretary of State Polk, reporting on the developments at Thursday's conference with the Mexican ambassador.

Concession on Gen. Carranza's part with regard to broadening the scope of the commission is said to have opened the way for the negotiation to proceed. Gen. Carranza has desired that the commission's scope should be even more limited than earlier reported.

He has wanted the commission to deal almost solely with the question of withdrawing the Pershing expedition and methods of border patrol. The administration now is convinced that the commission can be made an instrument for constructive works in organizing Mexico for peace.

The question of a big loan which Mexico desires to negotiate with American bankers will depend on the outcome of the commission's work. Luis Cabrera, general and lawyer, and Alberto Parisi, engineer, two of the men already mentioned for membership on the commission, now are expected to be appointed by Gen. Carranza, according to unofficial advice received at the Mexican embassy. Roberto Pesquera also has been mentioned.

Henry P. Fletcher, designated ambassador to Mexico, is being mentioned as a probable administration appointee to the commission.

Bright, Snappy Ties

In the summer a man needs about twice as many ties as in winter—a change more frequently is necessary because the tie is more conspicuous.

Men find it real fun to come in here and select ties; there is such a variety of them and the selections so well chosen.

Some dandies for 50c that you'd think should have a dollar mark. Others for more, and less.

WARDE ONE OF THE ATTRACTIONS AT CHAUTAUQUA

To Be Here on Third Day in a Lecture-Recital, "Shakespeare and His Plays"—Other Numbers Included in the Program.

Without doubt one of the most interesting feature of the coming Chautauqua in this city will be the appearance of the distinguished Shakespearean actor, author and lecturer, Mr. Frederick Warde, in his talk on "Shakespeare and His Plays."

Mr. Warde has been identified with the American stage for forty years and has been one of the most consistent and faithful adherents of the Shakespearean and classic drama nearly all this time. For years throughout various parts of the country he was regarded as the greatest exponent of the bard's works. With him Shakespeare is an idol as well as an ideal. He has made a deep study of his words and can quote fluently from every one of his plays.

Frederick Warde's lectures are not lectures in the dry sense of the word, but more like illustrated talks, illumined with frequent dramatic quotations from his plays. His long stage training and magnificent voice enable him to talk with impressive force and magnificent distinctness. He has a happy faculty of expression and handles his subject with such skill that the author sits charmed by his eloquence, is completely indifferent to the passage of time and when he has finished invariably clamors for more.

In the South and West, where Mr. Warde has been a Chautauqua favorite for the past ten years, there is never enough room to accommodate the audience desirous of hearing him. He will be one of the star numbers of the Chautauqua in this city, appearing on the third evening following a prelude by the Dunbar Singing orchestra.

Other numbers on the program are Lee French Lybarger of the Philadelphia bar, Arthur Delroy of the New York Psychic club, Dr. Euclid B. Rogers, Andre Tridon, Mexican war correspondent; the American Quartet and Clayton Conrad. O'Hara and Wetmore Victor's Florentine band and Neapolitan Troubadours and Ole Theobaldi, famous Norwegian violinist.

All this layent can be heard on the season-ticket plan for a few cents a number. The season tickets are sold by a local committee comprising the Chautauqua association. Get yours to-day.

Your Neighbor's Car

Suppose He Buys a Hudson Super-Six

One thing we can't forget in buying cars. That is pride of ownership. The car is a pleasure vehicle. And it spoils the fun to be hopelessly outrivaled in about the same-class car.

The Hudson Super-Six has proved itself supreme. With this patented motor—certified a stock motor—it has done what no other stock car ever did.

It has made faster speed. It has done better hill-climbing. It has shown quicker pick-up. It has gone 1819 miles in 24 hours, breaking the best former stock car record by 52 percent.

It has beaten race cars by the dozen—cars of a very costly type. It has shown much more power than this size motor ever before developed. It has proved matchless endurance.

Suppose your neighbor gets this car. And you, while paying as much or more, get something less efficient. How will you feel when the two cars meet?

What These Things Signify

You do not care for reckless speed. Such power is rarely needed. But the Super-Six has the capacity. You know it to be the master of the road. It will do what you want without taxing half its ability. And that means economy.

It will cover more ground than lesser cars, without going any faster. This because of its quick get-away when you slow down or stop.

Its greatest supremacy—that of endurance—means years of extra service. How would you feel to have a like-class car excel yours in these respects?

Means 80% More Efficiency

The Super-Six motor—a Hudson invention—adds 80% to motor efficiency. That is, from a small, light motor it gets 76 horsepower. The same size of motor heretofore yielded us 42 h. p.

This result comes through ending vibration, the cause of motor friction. It gives such smoothness as you never knew before. And it means a long-lived motor.

It comes in a car, evolved under Howard E. Coffin, which has long stood for the acme in fine engineering. And it comes in the handsomest, best-equipped model that Hudson has ever designed.

If your neighbor gets it, and you don't, it may mean to you years of regret. In looks and performance, in prestige and endurance, he will have the advantage of you. Your Hudson dealer can prove these things beyond any possible question. And you should know them before you buy any high-grade car.

Any Super-Six owner—there are now more than 10,000—can tell you what it means to own one.
